

VOLUNTEER INFORMATION
FOR MCKINLEY FIRE RELIEF
Updated: 8/29/2019

United Way of Mat-Su

Several local organizations need your help to continue the fire relief effort! Please read below to find the volunteer opportunity that most interests you.

Interested in helping, but not sure how? Please fill out a general volunteer application at unitedwaymatsu.org/volunteer and someone will contact you soon! Or, call 745-5824/email admin@unitedwaymatsu.org

Mat-Su Animal Shelter | Sue Fujimoto, Volunteer Coordinator, 761-7515

Volunteers are welcome to assist with shelter operations and pet care. Please call ahead to receive more information on available shifts and duties!

Mat-Su Food Bank | 501 E. Bogard Rd., Wasilla | 357-3769

The Mat-Su Food Bank coordinates deliveries to other food pantries throughout the Valley, including those in fire-affected areas. They have lots of extra traffic! If you would like to assist the Mat-Su Food Bank please fill out an online form at matsufoodbank.org

Mat-Su COAD Long-term Recovery Donations Intake Center | 745-5824

We are in need of volunteers to assist with greeting donors, loading, unloading and organizing donations, and much more! Please fill out a volunteer form at unitedwaymatsu.org

Red Cross of Alaska | 851 Westpoint Dr., Wasilla | 357-6060 x4

The Red Cross of Alaska accepts volunteer applications on an ongoing basis. Please complete their online form at redcross.org/local/Alaska/volunteer.html

Salvation Army Alaska Division | 745-7079

The Salvation Army Alaska Division accepts volunteers on an ongoing basis. They are especially in need of volunteers with a food handlers' permit and/or kitchen experience to continue feeding operations related to fire relief. Get started by filling out a form at alaska.salvationarmy.org/alaska_division/volunteer

Team Rubicon | kelly.isham@teamrubiconusa.org

Team Rubicon is collecting contact information from those interested in clean-up, muck-out, and skilled labor volunteer positions, including utilizing chain saws and clearing trees. Please use the email above until further notice.